Namba Gear Releases Big Namba Studio Backpack High Performance Bags for Musicians and DJ's

Monrovia, CA, July 1, 2008:

Southern California based Namba Gear announces their 2nd offering of high performance bags, backpacks and accessories for musicians and dj's. The Big Namba Studio Backpack features a security design that can hold up to a 17" laptop computer along with most 2-octave MIDI controller keyboards or computer dj controllers. The bag is also equipped with cable-ties as part of an integrated cable management system and contains a secret stash pocket. The Big Namba backpack is available in three musician-friendly colors: Mayan brown with blue interior, charcoal grey with red interior, and olive green with bronze interior.

Other features of the Big Namba Studio Backpack include: lockable zippers, holds 12" vinyls and audio devices; convenient carry handle; extra thick padding; extra wide shoulder straps with integrated phone pocket. Namba Gear has also partnered with Broadjam and offers a free one year membership to the musician's online community, along with other valuable offers, upon online product registration.

Namba Gear products are available via musical instrument & dj retailers as well as through their online webstore.
